Our approach to architecture is purposeful and practice-driven. We are passionate about the built environment and creating functional spaces. Our efforts continue until the design is right and the documentation clearly delivers our client’s vision with dedication and accountability. We are professionals, mentors, and adaptive thinkers who believe in our work and the relationships we build in the process.

We build connections through collaboration and continuous engagement with our partners to create spaces that bring people together. We believe the best part of who we are is what we do together.

Bada Bean Bada Booze

Columbus, Ohio

Bada Bean Bada Booze was devised as a flagship destination for Jeffrey Park and the neighborhood, offering coffee, cocktails, and community. The location holistically looks at what Thrive's community offerings could be for existing and future tenants, setting the stage for the brand to grow into new sites. The conceptual cafe transitions into a cocktail bar in the evening with leasing offices at the rear for the Jeffrey Park community. Industrial materials and neutral finishes dominate the asymmetrical space and act as a backdrop for brightly colored brand elements. The angled bar with a suspended two-tiered canopy is prominently located for accessibility and customer flow.

600 Broadway

New York City

Situated at the gateway to New York's famed SoHo neighborhood at the corner of Broadway and Houston Streets, this 105-year-old historic building needed a meticulous exterior restoration, requiring approval from the New York City Landmarks Preservation Commission. Exterior facade modifications were unanimously approved in a community meeting, drawing praise from the neighborhood.

The interior became part shopping destination, part tourist attraction, with materials, finishes, and features that align with the brand identity while drawing visitors from near and far. The atrium houses a striking stair tower in a style that unites the store with its historic structure. Large monitors throughout offer a live stream of Huntington Beach from different perspectives.

Gahanna / New Albany, Ohio
